

Lauderdale Lakes News Releases And Briefings

(LAUDERDALE LAKES, Florida) — The Multi-Purpose Building in the City of Lauderdale Lakes was the venue for the Broward Sheriff's Office's Holiday event on Christmas Eve.

The Broward County Sheriff's Office coordinated the distribution of approximately 200 Holiday Meals to needy families in Lauderdale Lakes. These families were selected from the different schools, located in the City of Lauderdale Lakes.

The Children were filled with excitement and good cheer as they were adorned with great food, gifts, and hugs from Santa, the Sheriff and his wife Susan, Lauderdale Lakes' Mayor, Russell Barrington, Commissioners Levoyd Williams, Gloria Lewis, Vice Mayor Eileen Rathery, and Jonathan Allen, the City Manager. Mayor Russell said, "This is a really nice event that Broward Sheriff's Office has organized for the kids during the Holiday Season. I love seeing all the smiles on the kids' faces."

The Windridge Foundation and the Broward County Sheriff's Advisory Council sponsored the event. The room was filled with all of the holiday décor to wow the little ones. The families were given a huge box of food, toys and a bicycle.

Mayor Russell was swept off of his feet by the a sweet little girl who seemed to melt in his arms. "Oh my, I believe this time with her is one of my best Christmas Gifts."
