Vice Mayor Karlene Maxwell-Williams is Appointed to the Broward County Commission on the Status of Women

Lauderdale Lakes, FL – Vice Mayor Karlene Maxwell-Williams has been appointed to the Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) by the Broward County Board of Commissioners. The Commission is responsible for CSW assessing County institutions, facilities, services, and programs dealing with women or affecting women and their families and recommending plans and programs to address these concerns.

"It is a great honor to be appointed to the Commission on the Status of Women. I look forward to working together with the other board members in helping Broward women. By assessing and recommending programs that will help resolve issues and concerns, we can make a difference in our local women's lives, for themselves, their families. We can celebrate their achievements, while empowering and promoting gender equality," Vice Mayor Maxwell-Williams said.

Vice Mayor Karlene Maxwell-Williams has served as vice mayor of Lauderdale Lakes since 2022 and has a long history of civic engagement. Vice Mayor Maxwell-Williams worked with the Florida Department of Revenue Child Support Enforcement for 15 years. In addition, she is the Citizenship Coordinator for Florida Immigrant Coalition (FLIC) and the former Community Service Chair for the Kiwanis Club of Lauderdale Lakes. She is a passionate ally to her community, with a heart for volunteerism, compassion, and activism. Vice Mayor Maxwell-Williams has a Bachelor's degree in Management and is a Notary.

The Broward County Commission on the Status of Women advisory board is a non-partisan body focusing on raising awareness and celebrating the contributions and successes of all residents of Broward County. It provides a collaborative platform for those seeking information on issues that affect women, girls, and their families in our County.
